

Floating strap - do not let the binoculars go down! A floating strap that holds the binoculars on the surface in case of falling into the water. Ensures the safety of binoculars on the water. It fulfills its task when used with small and medium binoculars. Dedicated in the first order Swarovski SLC and EL binoculars, it can be used with all binoculars fitted with a neck strap.