

The manual inserter allows quick insertion of 2-inch filters into the field of view. Inserter has four sockets for 2" filters, making it ideal for LRGB astrophotographs and for visual observations. \varnothing number of sockets for filters: 4 \varnothing weight: 285 g \varnothing material: metal \varnothing mounting from the side of the telescope: 2" nosepiece with its own 2" filter thread \varnothing mounting from the side of the eyepiece / camera / camera: 2", with a brass pressure ring \varnothing total height: 98 mm \varnothing length of the nose on the telescope side: 30 mm \varnothing height above the hood: 68 mm