

teleskopy.pl

Camrock Steadycam VS80 is a large flycam stabilizer made of aluminum alloy. It is intended for medium and large size VDSLR cameras and SLRs weighing up to 6 kg. The device was designed with 5 bearings that ensure smooth and stable shots. The stabilizer is designed for devices weighing 6 kg. Steadycam has the possibility of mounting on a vest with a shoulder. The gimbal is equipped with a 1/4 or 3/8 inch mount. It is covered with a soft, pleasant to the touch material. The head of the device is adjusted in two planes. It has a built-in spirit level. The head plate, 11 cm long, has two camera mounting screws with 1/4 and 3/8 inch thread. The set includes 6 pieces of weights, 4 pieces weighing 100 g each and 2 pieces of 200 g each. Camrock VS80 is intended for both amateurs and professional users. It lets you get amazing, smooth shots. A well-balanced device allows you to make shots known so far only from professional photo sets. The set includes a practical cover. Specification â€¢ height: 66 cm â€¢ max height: 78 cm â€¢ max load: 6 kg â€¢ device weight: approx. 2.4 kg (without load) â€¢ load in the set: 800 g â€¢ material: aluminum + rubber (cladding of the handle) â€¢ possibility of mounting on a vest (assembly thread 1/4 and 3/8 inch) Warranty 2 years Producer photos below; the camera and man are not included in the kit