

Comfortable head mounting allowing connection of Pulsar Challenger 1x20 observation night vision devices, both generation I and II +. This mounting allows you to place the night vision near the left eye, allowing you to work comfortably in complete darkness. Adjustable fastening straps allow you to customize the size. A convenient solution is also the possibility of quickly deviating the night vision device when it is not necessary for observation. Warranty 3 years