

Vortex Hurricane 7x50 is your binoculars for special tasks! Regardless of where you are going, whether they are Sahara's sands, the snow of Siberia, splashes of icy sea water somewhere in the ocean, or maybe just dense scrubs in your fishery. It is also a great wide-field astronomical binoculars. To the creators of the Vortex Hurricane binoculars, a simple idea was born - to create a versatile pair of binoculars with excellent parameters, at the same time ready to take any challenge during intensive use. Hurricane in the porro prism system is a piece of solid construction, whose resistance to adversity is simply impressive. The binoculars offer full water resistance, shock resistance, resistance to fogging, resistance to dust and dirt, additional outer coating of glasses ready to repel the attack of oil, seawater and all kinds of scratches.
