

Red filter designed for GoPro Session cameras. Used mainly when recording underwater movies in blue and green water, it allows you to get a better white balance and eliminate the excess of green and blue in the material being recorded. Made of very durable plastic. Designed for shallow and moderately shallow dives - up to 30 feet / 9 meters.