

With this power station, you can take your telescope anywhere you want. You can connect both computerized models and telescopes equipped with a regular drive. It allows powering the entire astrophotography set in the field. Orion Dynamo can also be used in roadside emergency because it is equipped with a warning impulse light, and also as an auxiliary generator to start the car with a weak battery (special connector). Technical data – capacity of 17 ampere hours, 12 V DC – two 12V DC output sockets (lighters, max. 10 A) – two 5 V USB ports – built-in AM / FM radio and siren – very strong LED light built-in – connector for the car battery – cord to the cigarette lighter socket – complete adapter for power supply (EU, USA, BS) – net / gross weight: 7.2 kg / 7.6 kg In order to maintain proper parameters, the built-in battery needs regular charging (about 1 x per month) Warranty 12 months

---