

teleskopy.pl

"How does it work? Space" is an 80-page book answering various questions about Space. Written by the well-known populariser Przemysław Ruda, in a most accessible and interesting way, introduces difficult issues to children. You can learn from it, among others: "Why is the moon changing its shape?" "Who is called the King of the Planets?" "What are ice giants?" "Do the stars have braids?" The book clearly and simply explains what is seemingly complicated. Funny illustrations help in this. "How does it work? Space" is a mine of answers that is the perfect gift for anyone interested in the history of our universe. Additional information: Format: 16.5 x 23.5 cm. Volume: 80 pages. Cover: soft.

