

"How does it work? Climate and weather" is an 80-page book that answers various questions about the Earth, atmosphere and weather. Written by the well-known populariser Przemysław Ruda, in a most accessible and interesting way, introduces difficult issues to children. Can the weather be measured? Where does it rain every day? What is smog? Why are drivers afraid of black ice? If you have similar questions, then you've come to the right place! The book "How does it work? Climate and weather" contains answers to dozens of questions about climate and weather phenomena. We explain what is seemingly complicated in a clear and simple way. Funny illustrations help in this. "How does it work? Climate and weather" is a mine of answers to extremely difficult questions! Additional information Format: 16.5 x 23.5 cm Volume: 80 pages Cover: soft ISBN: 978-83-8059-385-5 Release year: 2017