

1.25" 90 degree prismatic angle connector with helical focusing sleeve. The best connector of this type on the market - wonderfully made, offered only by William Optics. If you have a quality refractor, especially when you want to conduct daily observations - this is the perfect addition. Technical parameters / features : type: 90 ° 1.25", prismatic : great workmanship : completely metal body and nose, black anodized, smoothly finished elements : Bak-4 prism with anti-reflective coatings : has a helical (rotating) sleeve to replace the microfocutor : matt interior finish and appropriate tapping - to eliminate reflections : equipped with a 1.25" filter thread : weight: 180 g