

Dark gray neutral density moon filter in a 2-inch bezel. Reduces object brightness by cutting evenly across all wavelengths. It transmits 13 percent of the light from the incident beam. It has a thread on both sides of the housing (can be combined with other two-inch filters).