Condor - a new line of binoculars by the German company Bresser - is dedicated to lovers of nature observation, birds, hunters and all who seek very good, waterproof and dust resistant. They are comparable to Nikon EX binoculars and are not much inferior to the Monarch series, while being much cheaper. Impeccable optics, retractable eyecups, a central sharpening system and a 10-year manufacturer's warranty - these are the hallmarks of this series. Includes a neck strap, lenses covers and glasses, and a carrying case with a belt
